Underlying Investments

Our underlying investments are carefully selected and scrutinized and must pass ethical and financial screening procedures.

The Fund can invest:

- directly in equity securities of public companies listed on the Dow Jones Islamic Market™ Index 100 Titans (DJIMI)*;
- in instruments that mirror the performance of the DJIMI or mirror the performance of a selection of public companies listed on the DJIMI; and
- in other investments that have been deemed Shari'ah compliant by an applicable Shari'ah advisory committee.

The DJIMI Shariah Supervisory Board is an independent Shariah Board that consists of four leading scholars from around the world. The geographical diversity of the scholars ensures that diverse interpretations of the Shariah laws are represented.
