Market Commentary (as of Jun. 30, 2020)

For Q2 2020, the Global Iman Fund Series A return was 2.6%.

Our biggest sector overweights were in Communication Services, Information Technology, Industrials and Energy, while our biggest sector underweights were Materials, Consumer Staples, Healthcare, and Consumer Discretionary.

Geographically our biggest country overweights were in China, the Netherlands and Switzerland while our largest underweights were in Japan, United Kingdom and the United States.

Top contributors to performance in the second quarter were Apple Inc., Facebook Inc., ASML Holding, Tencent Holdings Ltd, and Microsoft Corp while the main detractors of performance were Medtronic Corp, Roche Holding Ltd., Johnson & Johnson and Nestle Inc.

Portfolio changes that were conducted in the second quarter included selling Unilever and buying Honeywell International Inc. Honeywell is a diversified technology and manufacturing company. Its products and services help to enhance the quality of life and enable a safer and more productive world. With these changes, we believe the portfolio is optimally positioned from a securities point of view.

Investment Strategies

To achieve its fundamental investment objective the Fund, via the Portfolio Manager, will invest:

- directly in equity securities of public companies listed on the Dow Jones Islamic Market Titans 100 Index ("IMXL");
- in instruments that mirror the performance of the IMXL or instruments that mirror the performance of a selection of public companies listed on the IMXL; and
- other investments that have been deemed Shari'ah compliant by an applicable Shari'ah advisory committee.

The Portfolio Manager will be actively managing all securities in the portfolio.

Fund Manager

Global Growth Assets Inc. acts as investment fund manager for the Fund and is responsible for directing the business, operation and affairs of the Fund including appointing a portfolio manager. The Global family of companies also includes Global Maxfin Investments Inc. which offers mutual funds solutions, Global Insurance Solutions Inc. which offers insurance solutions.

Portfolio Manager

UBS Investment Management Canada Inc. (UBS), a subsidiary of UBS Bank (Canada) is retained to act as portfolio manager to the fund and is responsible for the management of the Fund's assets and making investment decisions.

How does the Fund operate in accordance with Islamic principles?

Islamic investment principles generally preclude investments in certain kinds of businesses or sectors in prohibited/ haram areas, such as alcohol, tobacco, pork (a non-halal animal) related products, financial services, weapons and defence, entertainment, and gambling. If an issuer's primary business activity results in the issuer being classified into any one of the following industry classifications, it will not be deemed to be compliant with Shari'ah (i.e. it will not be a "Shari'ah Compliant Company"): Defence, Distillers & Vintners, Food Products, Recreational Products, Tobacco, Food Retailers & Wholesalers, Broadcasting & Entertainment, Media Agencies, Gambling, Hotels, Recreational Services, Restaurants & Bars, Banks, Full Line Insurance, Insurance Brokers, Property & Casualty Insurance, Reinsurance, Life Insurance, Real Estate Holding & Development, Consumer Finance, Specialty Finance, Investment Services, and Mortgage Finance. The Fund will not invest in such issuers.

Moreover, if an issuer's primary business activity results in the issuer being classified into another industry classification, but the issuer has a material interest in, or revenues from, prohibited business activities, it will not be deemed to be a Shari'ah Compliant Company, and so the Fund will not invest in such issuers.

Islamic investment principles also preclude investments in issuers with unacceptable levels of debt or interest income based on certain financial ratios. If an issuer has unacceptable levels of debt or interest income, it will not be deemed to be a Shari'ah Compliant Company, and the Fund will not invest in such issuers.
